

Hosted by:

Bevan Brittan

Sustainable
Health and Care

Event agenda

13 March - 9:00 – 16:00
Kings Orchard, 1 Queen St, Bristol BS2 0HQ

9:00–10:00 - Networking, exhibition and registration

10:00–10:10 - Chair's welcome

- Jerome Baddley, Head of the Sustainable Development Unit (SDU)

10:10-10:30 - National update

- Jerome Baddley, SDU

10:30-11:00 - Update on the regional sustainability networks and ambassador programme

- Kim Croasdale, Local and Regional Sustainability Networks Manager, SDU
- Andrew Netherton, Health and Wellbeing Manager, Public Health England South West

11:00-11:20 - Break, networking and exhibition

11:20-11:50 - Reducing carbon emissions and energy spend with interest-free government finance

- Hannah Taylor, Programme Manager NHS and Seema Chandel, PR & Marketing Officer, Salix Finance

11:50-12:50 - Case study marketplace

- Enabling social sustainability by design. Esther Coffin-Smith, Sustainable Development Manager and Tanya Saker, Environmental Management System Co-ordinator, North Bristol NHS Trust
- Green spaces project. Alexandra Heelis, Sustainability Officer, University Hospitals Bristol NHS Foundation Trust
- Collaborative working and sustainability in the curriculum. Sam Willits, Energy and Sustainability Manager, University Hospitals Bristol NHS Foundation Trust
- Green Impact for Health project. Terry Kemple, Sustainability Lead, GP
- Energy performance contract. Steve Gladwin, Energy and Compliance Manager, Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust

12:50-13:40 - Lunch

13:40-14:40 - Why does it matter to me? Using activities and reflection to convey sustainability and healthcare messages

- Prof. Janet Richardson, Professor of Health Research, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Plymouth University

14:40-15:10 - Should we, and could we, promote walking to work?"

- Dr Suzanne Audrey, Senior Research Fellow in Public Health, Bristol Medical School

15:10-15:30 - Break, networking and exhibition

15:30-15:50 - SDU tools and resources workshop

- Rick Lomax, Sustainability Project Analyst and Programme Manager, SDU

15:30-16:00 - Chair's closing remarks

16:00 - END

