Health and social care workers in UK

- 5% of nurses
- 9% of doctors
- 16% of dentists
- 5% of allied health professionals
EEA nationals in social care grew by 30,600 from 2011 to 2016 in the UK.

- Northern Ireland: +206%
- Scotland: +61%
- England: +66%
- Wales: +56%
England alone may have an additional shortage of 2,700 nurses in the short run. With an additional shortfall of up to 10,000 nurses by 2021.
UK applications to study nursing: Down by 20% since 2016

UK applications to read medicine: Down by 10% since 2016