Applications are invited from individual nurses, midwives and health visitors in England to participate in the prestigious Mary Seacole Awards for 2019-20.

These awards, funded by Health Education England, provide the opportunity to undertake a specific health care project that benefits and improves the health outcomes of people from black and minority ethnic communities and contributes to your personal development.

To apply and for more information:

Email governance.support@rcn.org.uk or visit www.nhsemployers.org/maryseacole

Closing date 24 May 2019