

Disability Summit

Changing mindsets,
embracing difference

30 April 2019

9.30am–4pm

The Tower Hotel
London

 @NHSE_Diversity #disabilitysummit19

Building on the success of previous events, this year's Disability Summit will share lived experiences of disability in the workplace and seek to galvanise action on issues affecting staff with disabilities across the NHS.

Delegates will be able to hear the latest good practice and learn strategies for changing mindsets and embracing difference in the workplace.

To book your place visit: www.nhsemployers.org/disabilitysummit19

Disability Summit 30 April 2019

Speakers

- Kate Nash OBE – CEO, Purple Space
- Dr Ian McPherson – Chair of Surrey Borders Partnership NHS Foundation Trust
- Dr Hannah Barham-Brown – disabled doctor, Tedxspeaker
- Lisa Rodrigues – mental health campaigner
- University Hospitals of Morecambe Bay NHS Foundation Trust Disability Staff Network
- NHS England
- West Yorkshire Police

Event in partnership with:

Why attend?

- Access the latest information on the NHS Workforce Disability Equality Standard (WDES), Disability Confident and the Learning Disability Employment Programme.
- Hear the voices of disabled people and learn about their experiences.
- Visit the Learning Hub to access resources and support from a variety of organisations.
- Improve your understanding of the inequalities and challenges faced by people with disabilities working within the NHS.
- Be part of an engaging event with lots of opportunities to make useful connections.