

The candidate recruitment journey – employer checklist

This checklist will help make sure your organisation's recruitment processes are accessible to people with disabilities and learning difficulties and disabilities. The route is divided into things to think about and actions you can take at specific points of a new candidate's employment path.

