

Support for managers

Below are further resources that may be useful to managers when they consider how to encourage their support staff in their development.

- Read the blog on supporting, developing and celebrating our care support workers and actions taken by Harrogate and District NHS Foundation Trust (HDFT).
- Find out why Portsmouth Hospitals University NHS Trust decided to introduce a new band three role, the learning pastoral support worker.
- Use the NHS Employers People Performance Management toolkit to ensure line managers make time to talk about career aspirations.

Join our free NHS Employers education and training network to connect with experts across the NHS, network, and share good practice.
