

How has Step into Health improved your journey to becoming a forces-friendly employer?

"Step has helped us in forming relationships with MoD partners and have supported us and colleagues within the NHS to work better together"

"They are the go-to team to find out information ... no question is a silly question"

"Candidates interested in our area are automatically informed of support available to them via the candidate system"

"Provided a network to share best practice and explore challenges with others"

"By notifying us of interested parties so we can contact them to discuss their experience, skills etc., further"

"It makes us as a trust realise the amount of talent that is out there"

88 per cent of 16 employers surveyed agreed/strongly agreed that "the Step into Health programme supports employers to recruit from the Armed Forces Community." None disagreed.
