

Moving From “I Can’t to I Can”

Rachel Andrew
Dudley Group NHS

Dionne Williams
Dudley MBC

Today's Agenda...

Checking In: Your Challenges...

What thorny challenges are blocking your way?

What shadows dim your brilliant ideas?

Where do you feel your power waning?

Checking In: Your magic powers...

What sparks your magic?

Which tools light your path?

Who stands beside you in moments of wonder?

Learning From Us

Working together across organisations

Testing how we as anchor Institutions can work together across our place

Place Based Learning Approaches

Piloting alternative new learning approaches across our place via our learning enquiries

Place Based Workforce Partnership

Improving access to our jobs for local residents and fostering cultural change within our orgs

The Role of Creative Practice in OD

Exploring how creative practice and collective imagination can enable organisational development

I Can Dudley Partnership

Our partnership principles describe how we work together in partnership to achieve our ambitions.

Leading together across our system and place

Celebrating diverse gifts and skills

Nurturing the courage to be curious,
experiment fail
and learn

Relationships matter

Collective thinking and doing

What do we need to do to work together more effectively in partnership?

Within your own organisation

As an OD Community

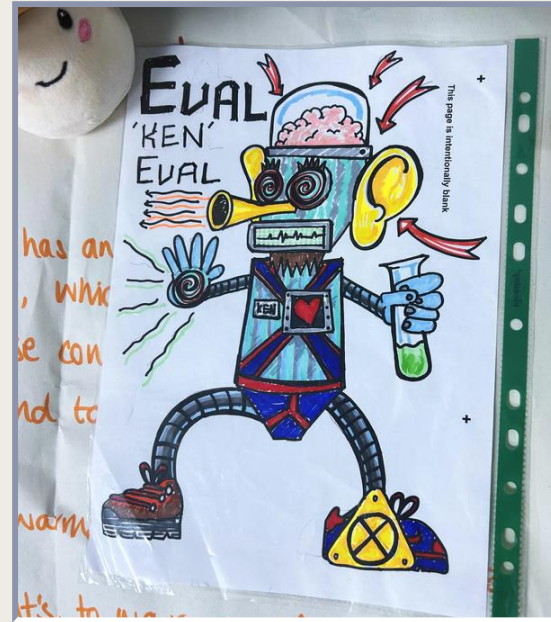

Place or System level

What would your partnership principles be?

Exploring the role of creative practice in OD

Experimenting with using creative and collective imagination practices to foster the conditions for testing new ways of being, doing and building the courage to step into new possibilities and creative solutions

OD as a Mythical Beast...

Step into a realm where OD is not just a function it's a living breathing mythical force...

If OD were a mythical beast, what would it look like?

What powers would it need to thrive in our world?

What does it say, do, feel as it shapes the future?

Draw from other worlds, ancient wisdom and unseen realms

Magical Beginnings...I Can...

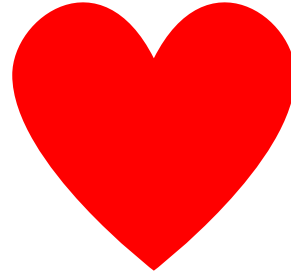

...dream about.....?

...find help and support from.....?

...nurture friendships with...?

... create joy and meaning from....?

Connect with Us

Find us on Linked in Join our mailing list

THANK YOU